SUMMER SCHOOL

for Young Dancers

Welcome to this year's exciting Summer School for Young Dancers. The students will enjoy an intensive week of dance. Our summer school is open to boys and girls who are studying any method of Classical Ballet.

The course is organised by the Cecchetti Ballet Associates and is for students aged 9-17 years who have passed a minimum of Grade 3 Classical Ballet. It is primarily a fully residential course, although a limited number of 'Day Pupil' places are available.

The course offers daily classes in Ballet with introductory lessons in other genres, for example, Jazz, Contemporary, Classical Greek, Spanish Character and Repertoire, culminating in a performance and prize giving in Frensham Heights fabulous Aldridge Theatre.

The Course Organisers are Claire Hern and Emma O'Brien. Claire and Emma have many years' experience and, with their Pastoral Care Support team, will ensure the students enjoy their week of dance, in a safe and welcoming environment. Claire, Emma, and her team of helpers, including a Paediatric Nurse, will be resident on the premises throughout the week. The teaching faculty will consist of diverse and highly respected qualified dance teachers in Cecchetti Ballet, or their specialist field of expertise.

Allocation to classes by Age and Ability

Students will be placed in a ballet group reflective of their ability. This will be initially decided by the organisers upon application, and monitored daily by the Classical Ballet Faculty.
